SENIORS 1955

John Click Yost, Jr.

Pleasure and action make the days seem short.

THE BUILDERS

"All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time:
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,
Builders wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part;
For the Gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
Both the unseen and seen;
Make the house where gods may dwell
Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives are incomplete,
Standing in these walls of Time,
Broken stairways, where the feet
Stumble, as they seek to climb.

Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain,
And one boundless reach of sky."

—Longfellow.

GETTING THE YELLOW

1. The whole journalism class helps to plan the next "Yellow Jacket." The staff produces fourteen papers a year.

2. News stories are gathered by the staff from their "beats." Here Peggy Peacock, assistant news editor, interviews her "beat," Mrs. Goston, for a possible news story for the "Post" or the next "Yellow Jacket."

3. Patsy Ryan, social editor, gets her column ready for Jane Sugg, exchonge editor, to type. Dinah Deitz, art editor, is drawing one of her clever cartoons for the next issue.

4. It is up to the editors to select the best news stories, features, and editoriols for the next paper. Here Mimi Krider, managing editor; Mildred Erwin, feature editor; Pat Hinceman, editoriol editor; Jerry Shaver, editor-in-chief; and Nancy Hayes, news editor, go over the copy turned in by the staff.

5. The "lifeline" of a newspaper is the ads. Carol Harrison, assistant ad manager; Becky Shuping, ad manager; and Violet Melchor, alumni editor, sell an ad to the Fulton Street Pharmacy.

6. The entire staff works at making-up the pages.

JACKET TO PRESS

7. With ruler and pencil in hand, Boyd Hight, assistant editarial editar; Pam Morris, head af news bureau; and Linda Flynn, assistant feature editar, make up a page.

8. The sparts page is a very impartant page in the paper and Danny Hogue, assistant ad manager; Robert Lee, sparts editar; and Glenn Ketner wark very hard ta see that the latest sparts news is in the "Yellaw Jacket."

9. Befare the paper gaes ta the printer, Jerry Shaver, editar, and Miss Ida Gordner, advisar, must ga aver all capy and make-up ta be sure everything is in arder.

10. On the day the "Yellaw Jacket" cames aut, staff members must came ta schaal early and fald the papers. Here Frances Peeler, assistant news editar; Mary Ann Kirk, girls' sparts editar; and Benny Lou Kenerly, news bureau assistant, fald the papers and have a gaad time "gabbing" at the same time!

11. Glenn Ketner, circulatian manager, and Lind Earle, business manager, get ready ta circulate the "YJ" all aver BHS.

12. Anather satisfied - ta - be custamer pays her fifteen cents. She has a real treat in stare!

THOSE WHO

Outside activities, such as Dramatics, Journalism, Sports, and Music, require much extra time, work, and energy.

In Dramatics, much must be done before a successful and entertaining play can be presented to the students. This requires many hours at school, after school, and at home.

Journalism requires a knowledge of English, printing, typing and a willingness to work hard and long. Getting the "Yellow Jacket" and "Echo" to press requires many hours.

Sports is one of the most time-consuming activities at Boyden. Practice sessions last long into the afternoon and the physical qualifications are rigid.

To be able to play a musical instrument or to sing—and do it well—requires much skill and practice. Hours of rehearsal are necessary before a successful musical program can be presented.

The teachers of these four subjects submitted a list of several seniors who have been outstanding in one of these fields. The lists were turned over to a special committee of faculty and students who made the final selections.

I saw the tower of Boyden
As I was passing by,
The golden tower of Boyden
Against a deep blue sky.

And as I stood there thinking
Of happy days gone by,
My heart beat fast in memory,
And a tear came to my eye.

For years on years we tried
To climb this tower sublime,
With a chisel we called Wisdom,
And two hands we called Time.

We struggled always upward,
At times in deep despair;
And when we'd given up hope
We'd say a fervent prayer.

And then we finally made it—
To the top of this tower sublime,
With a chisel we named Wisdom,
And two hands we called Time.

Annyce.
I have enjoyed our two years at high school. May our next two years be this great. We will soon be juniors. It sound impossible but real great. You are a swell friend. Remember all our classes don't ever forget English and "Lindsay". It has really been swell old gal. Don't ever forget me and my frog!
Love ya loads,
"Libby"

Dear Sam-

I have just started but I don't know any thing to write, except a bunch of bull, so not to have a fight. Well, here we go. Don't forget the "ole" goat, us, and those poems. It's not everyday people sit down + write poems (like you) but oh those you poems you wrote. Don't forget that poem I wrote about Joe. Maybe someday you'll tell me just what you + Joe talked about on the telephone. (You just cracked a funny) Don't ever forget those daily walks again this year. Remember last year it was past 2:17 and now it's first floor. Don't forget those days of tennis - me, you Danny, Dolly, and Gary and about everybody Sheriff. Don't forget the days when we tried to teach Sheriff, but now she's just about as good as we are and we have played a whole summer. What would we do if it wasn't for her, though? It would be rough I suppose. Well don't forget our "snow men" (Bob, Frank, Jerry S., etc.) Don't forget our classes today and everyday together. Well I guess you know by now how pretty Charles Sidney Livengood's and Jerry Brown's legs are. Say Jerry sure looks good in a blue sweater + white tennis shorts doesn't he? (Quit looking out the door and window) and forget (you better not) the boys tennis match with Statesville. You are my side kick (besides Sheriff) and also my sister.

Putting foolishness aside, Annyce I think you're one of the greatest gals I know. Don't ever forget our good and bad times together. May you have success in everything you attempt to do for I know you will. I hope we can be together as much next year as we have this.

Best Wishes for future. Love ya Frances

Hello Annyce (Sam)

Well another year has about gone by and soon there will only be two left. During the summer I hope you don't forget the times we had during school and in the afternoon when you and Martha tried to teach me to play tennis - guess I'll learn some day. Although we didn't have any classes together we had the same old goat for English didn't we - so don't forget the things she made us do.

Well since summer is here and there won't be much to do except play tennis or if we are lucky we may get to go to the beach - I hope so. If we do we can have quite a time drinking all the salt or letting a fish swallow us up (you know it will.)

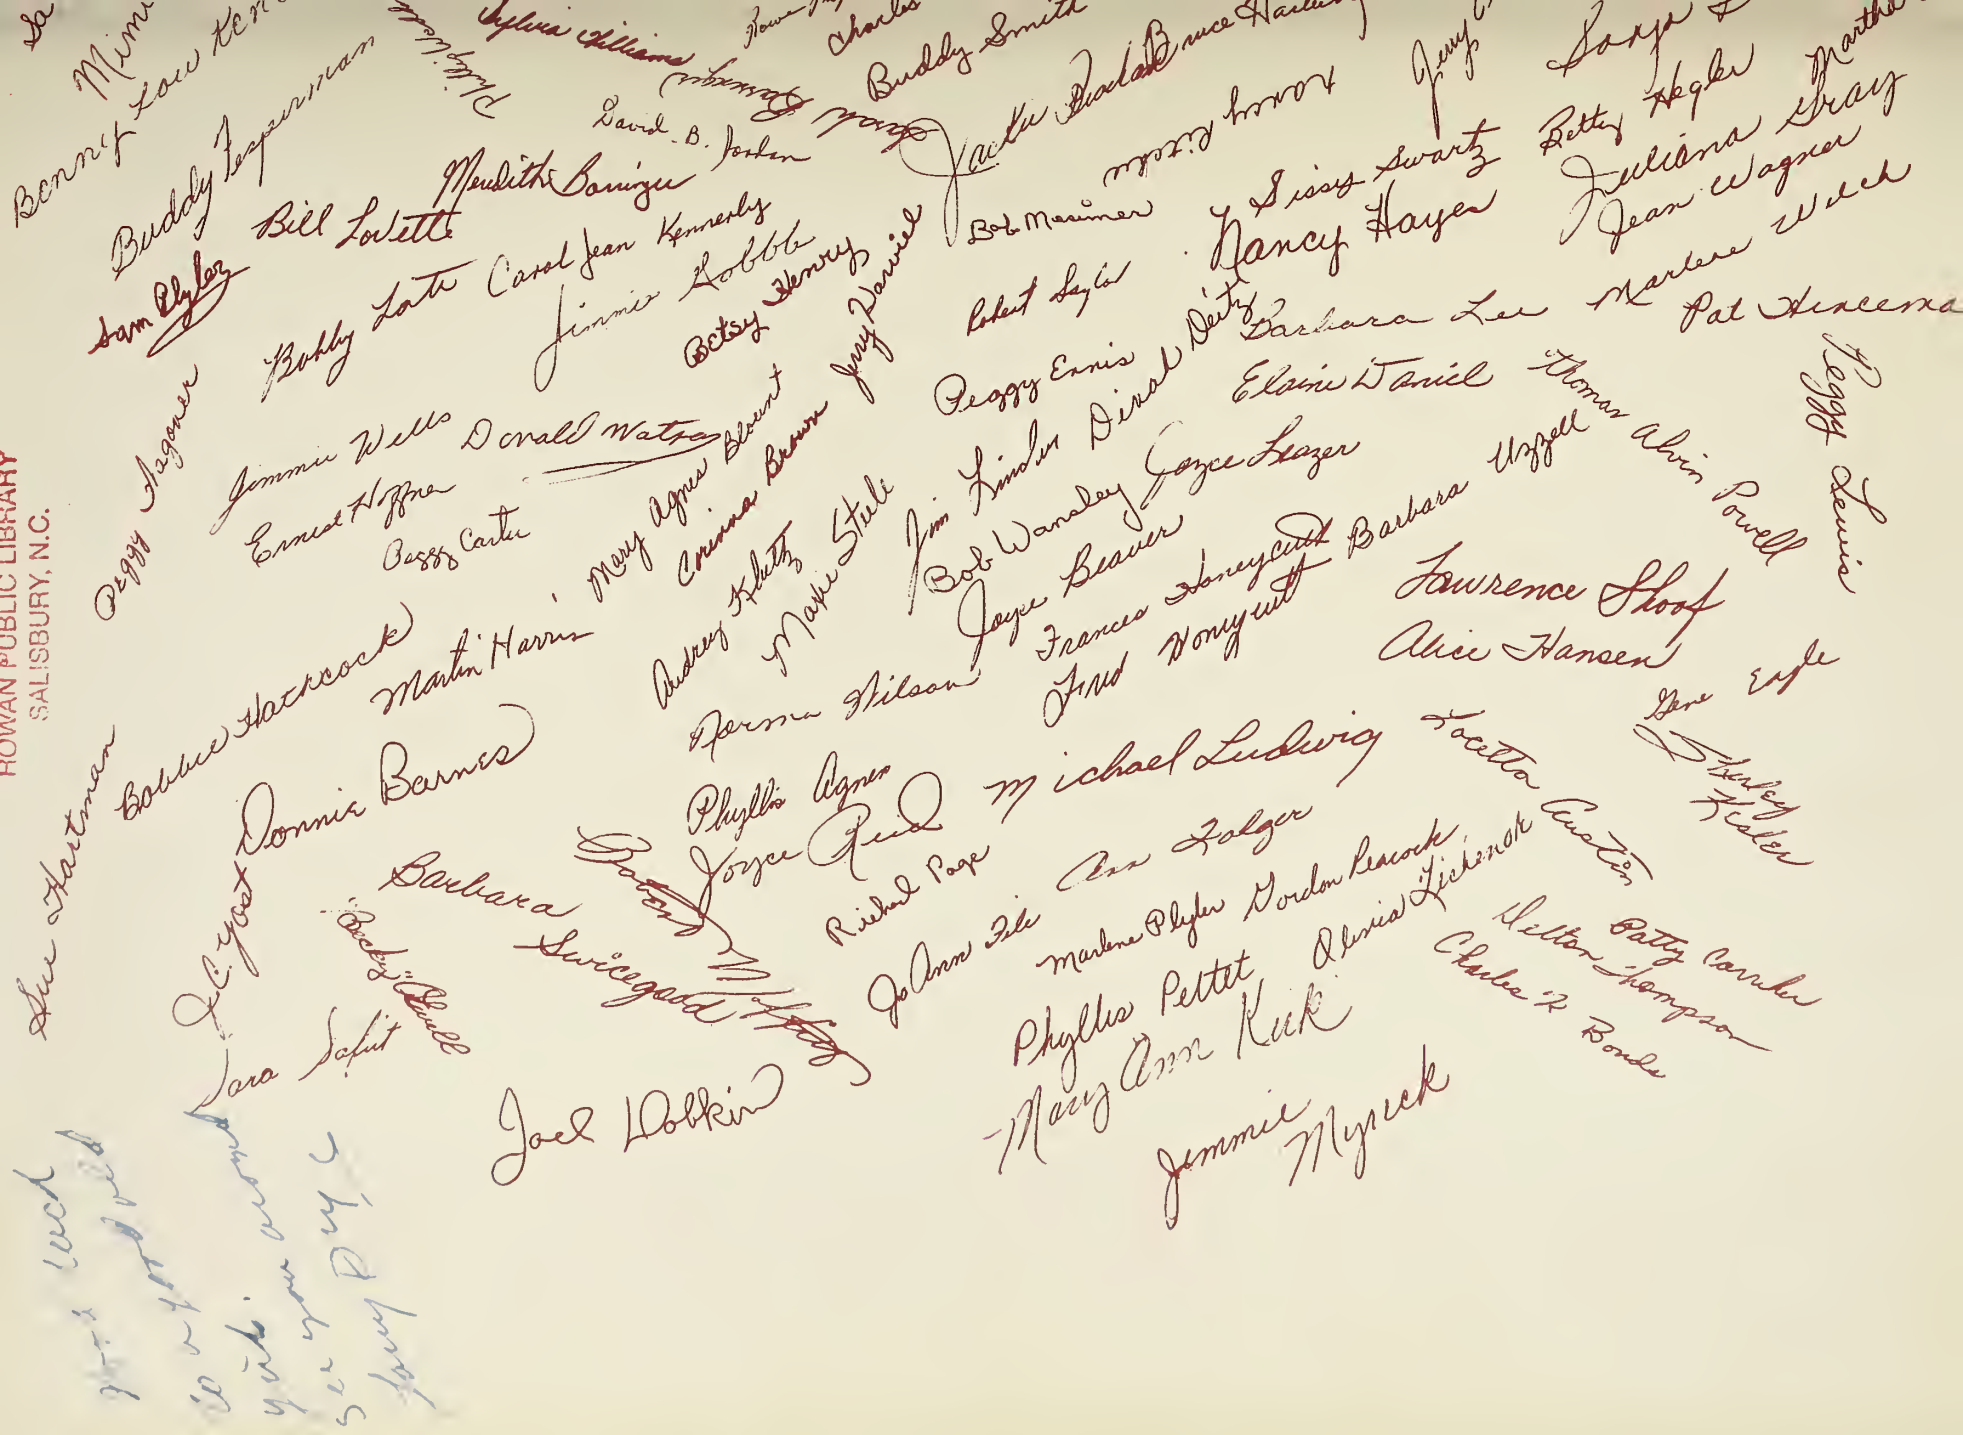

Well Annyce since we have been in the tenth grade we have become sisters. Thats about the nicest thing that happen this year. Hope that when we graduate we will still be the best of friends. I don't what I would do if you weren't around to advise me like you did in the eight grade.

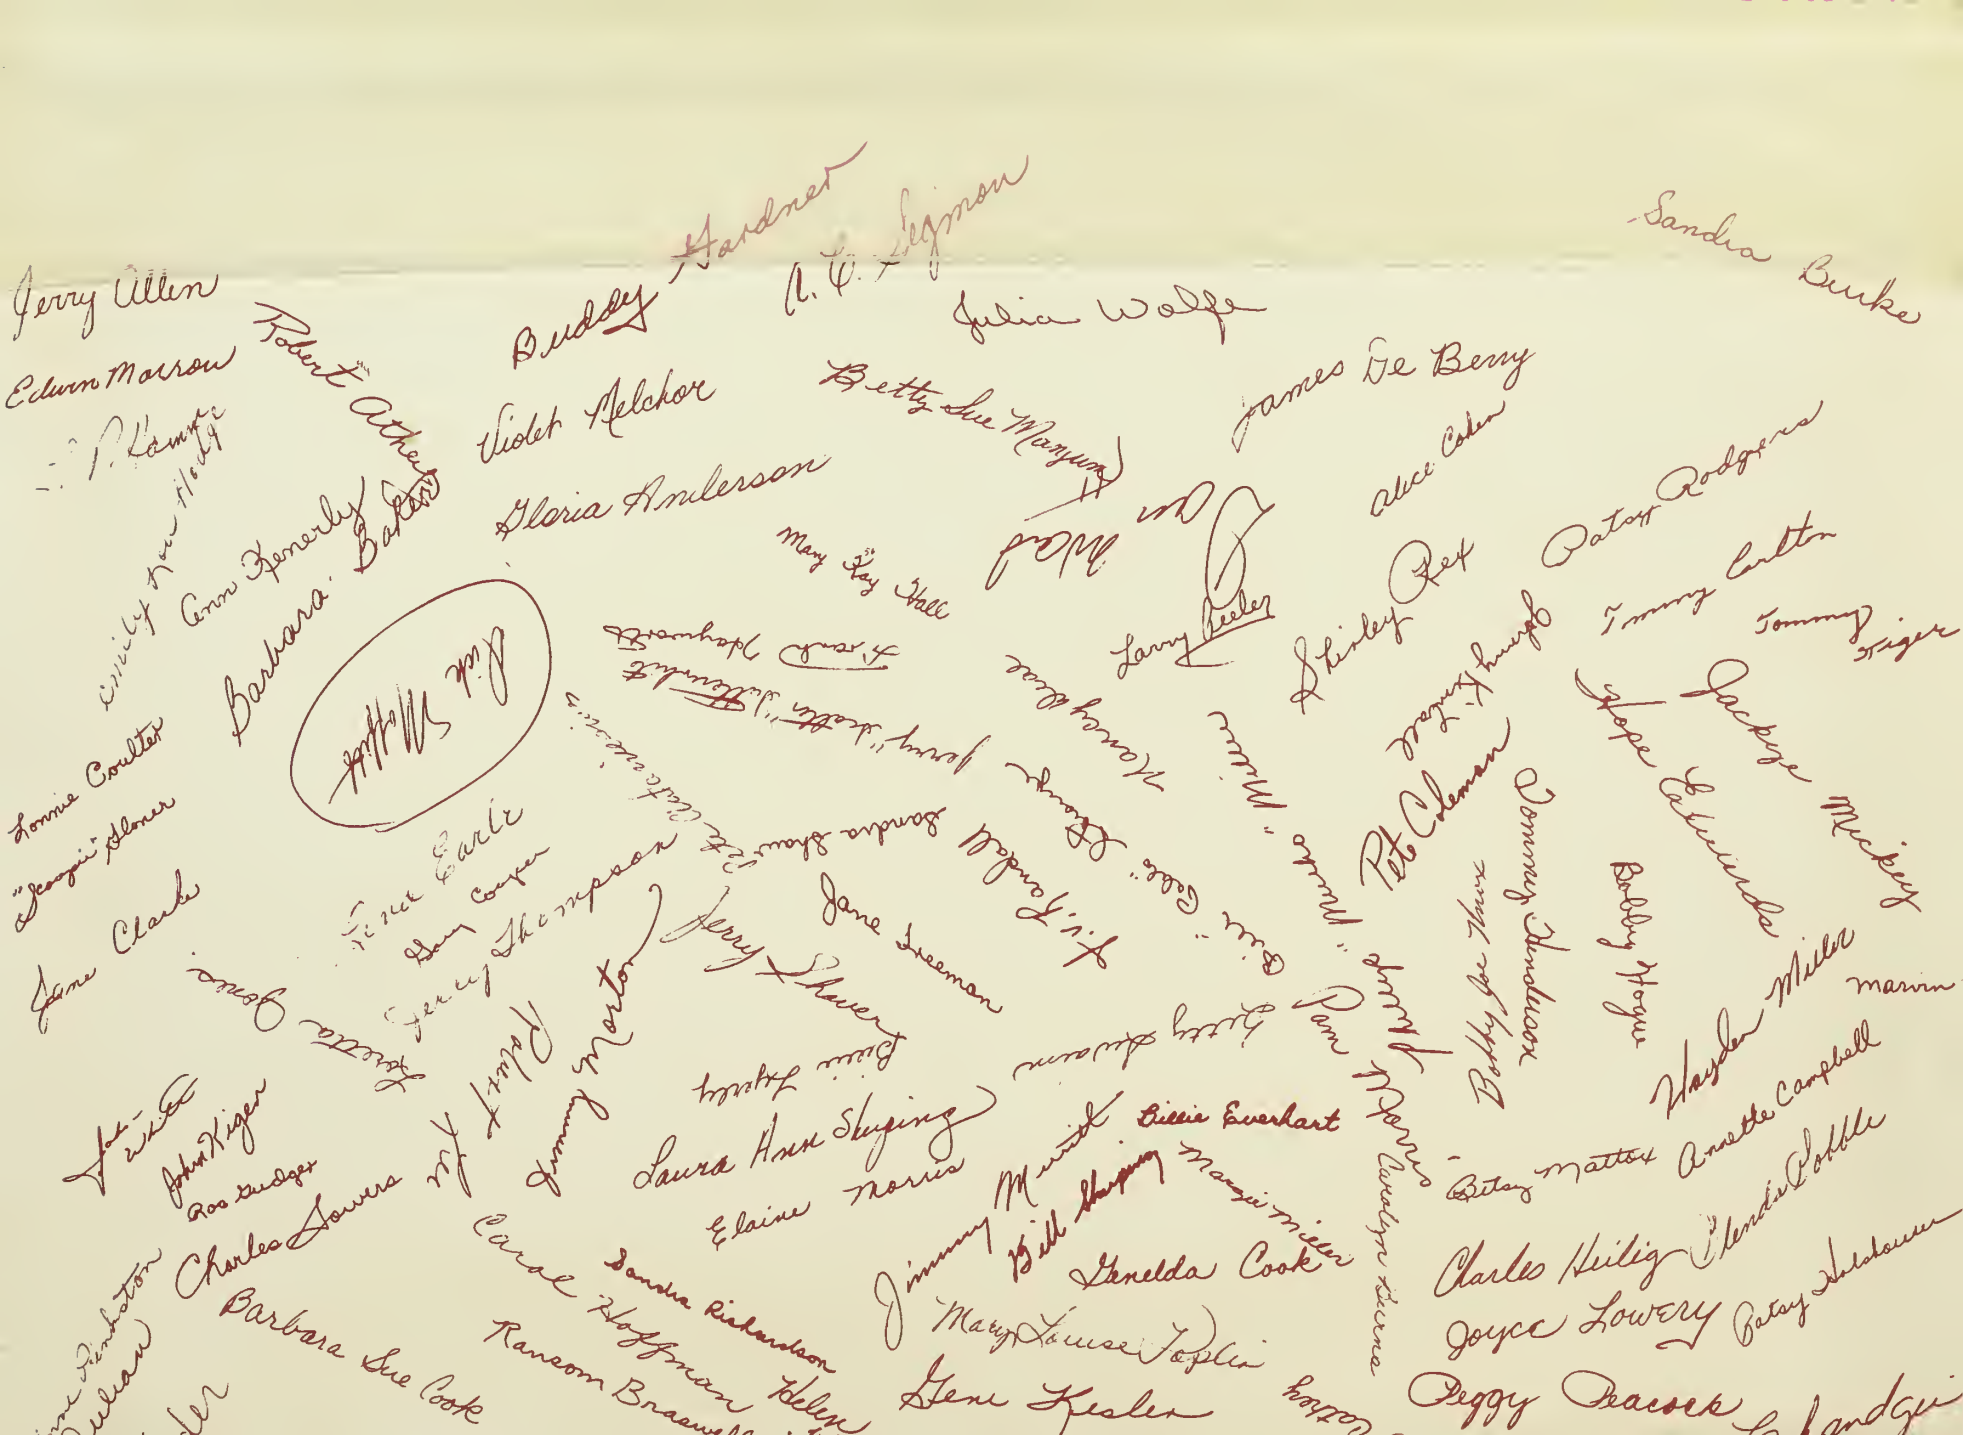

Don't change Annyce and keep liking Danny maybe it will work out one day. I'll stop shooting the bull now and tell you the thing anyone likes to here, but this not just talk. You are a wonderful person with a pleasing personality. Your charming smile will always win you friends, so don't forget how to smile (as if you could.) I hope you can make a career out of your music for you play very nice.

Don't forget our being sisters and I'll see you next year. Luck and Love ya.
